Why Kairos D.T.S.?

With a goal of spiritual growth through mentorship and counsel, Kairos D.T.S. emphasizes one-on-one discipleship. A D.T.S. staff member will be with you throughout the entire lecture phase. It will be a wonderful opportunity to find a God-centered community and mentors.

Kairos University Campus of AEU is accredited university, and graduates of this 16-week program will obtain 12 university credits that can be used for A.A. or B.A. degree. FAFSA, CAL Grant, and various scholarships will be available depending on the individual's status.

Kairos D.T.S is not only helping individual students to find their gifts and callings but also each student can pursue higher education by continuing with KU at the School of Theology, School of Counseling, or School of Professional Studies.

Kairos D.T.S. Speakers

Established in 2023, Kairos D.T.S. welcomes speakers from around the world to come and teach and share their in-depth experiences as forerunners for Christ. Including international speakers from Youth With A Mission, Kairos Professors, and various influential local church Pastors who are qualified, well-known, and competent speakers committed to extending the Kingdom of God.
